

Attachment B: Preliminary design concept

The design will be fully customized to Los Alamos and the location, both in content and form/shape. For example, the artist may consider a shorter, wider, rounder, and/or more three-dimensional approach after visiting the site. The imagery in the circular segments would be part of the artist's effort to represent the character of the County.

