Honorable Los Alamos County Council Members:

My name is Gabriel Montoya, a lifelong resident of Pojoaque, NM. I am writing to request your recommendation for appointment as a candidate to represent New Mexico State Senate District 6. Over the years I have had the opportunity to work with many Los Alamos County Council Members. Since 2010, I have worked in partnership with Los Alamos County as a member of the RediNet Board of Directors. I was unanimously elected Chairman of the Board in 2014 and have continuously served in that capacity. I am proud to be part of a team that is providing the solution to the absence of fiber optics by promoting the implementation of a redundant fiber path to better serve the region.

As the Director of Special Projects for The Pueblo of Pojoaque I have gained invaluable experience serving as a liaison between County, State and Federal representatives to ensure the viability and success of the Pueblo and neighboring communities. Through my work as a liaison I have come to understand the legislative process and have established relationships with current and former members of the Legislative body.

I respectfully request your consideration and look forward to the opportunity to answer any of your questions as to why I am the best choice for New Mexico State Senate District 6.

Respectfully,
