Technology: Expansion of Software Support

- Pre-Schedule
  - Current Operation-
    - load forecasting was done on a monthly basis. Three days before the end of the month the load forecast was due for the entire month.
  - EIM Operations-
    - Forecasting will have to be completed much more frequently. It will need to be submitted to the Balancing Authority (BA) every day for a 7-day rolling forecast.
- Real-time
  - Current Operations-
    - Forecasting is mostly taken care of by the monthly forecast, however on a hourly basis when the previous hour is checked out a quick mention of the current hour's load is given.
  - EIM Operations-
    - Forecasting will have to be completed much more frequently. It will need to be submitted to the BA every hour for a 5-hour rolling forecast.
- This requirement must be completed for both the Power Pool and Sandia/Kirtland.
- Implementation is $9,000.00 capital expense and a $6,000.00 O&M, however it possibly saves the addition of an entire real time merchant desk (Doubling of Staff).

Process: Implementation Consulting Contract

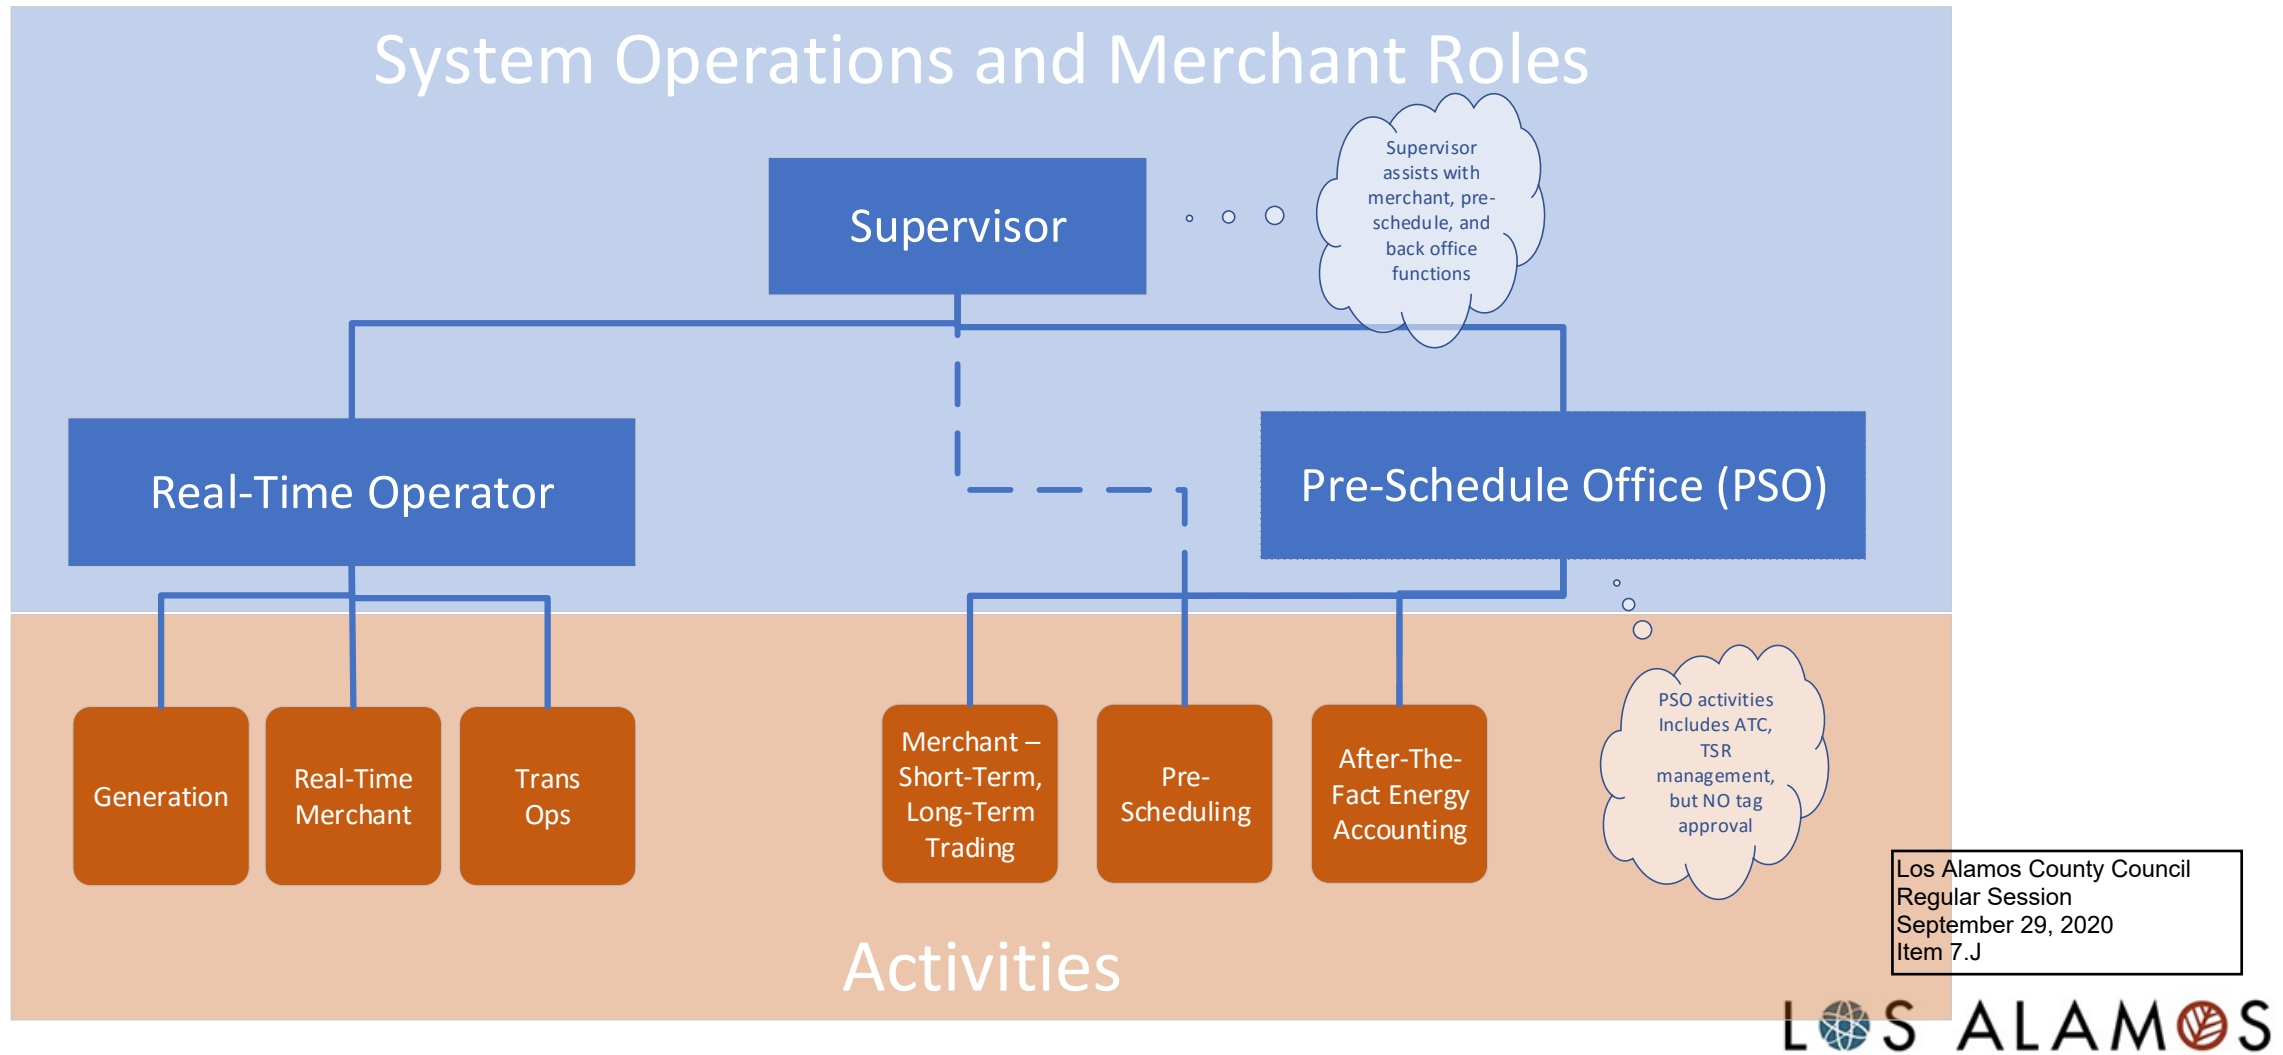

- Oversee the creation and Submission of Hourly Base schedules and Daily schedules
- Creating the Procedures for the notification process for Generation Outages, Transmission Outages, system limitations etc.
- Assistance with understanding/avoidance of financial risk with regarding to load fluctuations
- Procedures for possible instructions from the Balancing Authority (BA)
- Liaison with BA and California Independent System Operator (CAISO) to ensure proper data share and tuning of Operations
- Implementation contract is $125,000.00 with a $32,181.19 Contingency and should be closed out after May 1st 2021

Question 2

I suggest it be placed above the fireplace in the Curtis Room, rather than the Pajarito Room. I have too many memories dating from 1951 of the Pararito Room, dining with dates, friends and family, folk dancing, many musicals, meetings, civic gatherings, weddings, anniversaries and funerals. This painting is not a part of the original environment of the Pajarito Room.

This is a historical painting and deserves a location in someplace historical to denote this activity of the Ranch School. A hallway maybe.

|       |                         |                 | Great artist. Location deeply inappropriate, a different image & for a different place. If county buys, buy scout building could be good |
|       |                         |                 | It's awesome! I like the art and think it is a great placement!!   |
|       |                         |                 | The art is amazing and I think he is very talented. Great idea!  |
|       |                         |                 | like it in smaller version not over main fireplace   |
|       |                         |                 | Not over fireplace - but smaller somewhere else (looky artwork!)   |
|       |                         |                 | Not over the fireplace. It is nice - but keep it smaller.  |
|       |                         |                 | Not over fireplace - Too distracting when there are performers up front. Looking okay for some other place.                              |
|       |                         |                 | Not over the fireplace, but could be nicely featured in the lodge somewhere. Too distracting to look at during events.                   |

| Cassandra Arnsden   | 1300 Iris St #205  | (650) 933 0769  | I like the concept, as long as the rug currently displayed above the main fireplace is still displayed somewhere                                  |
| PAT WALLS           |  | 505 500 0242    | I LIKE IT - JUST NOT OVER THE FIREPLACE IN MAIN ROOM  |

| Gabriella Tepler    | gabriel.tepler@gmail.comgabbetepler@gmail.com |                 | I support either, I think it's a good idea  |

| Victor Rutherford               | lasojourn@comcast.net       |                 | I like the inclusion of the Seglar piece however I am not in favor of putting it over either of the fire places (that deer head has been there for many decades) How about on the wall below room 234. |
| Alison Chilen                   | calicopiratepixie@gmail.com |                 | Over either fire place would be fine. The art piece looks like a nice inclusion  |
