Title

Discussion and Approval of the Final Report to Council

Recommended Action

I move that the Task Force accept the final report of the Inclusivity Task Force, and forward the report and recommendations to Council for their consideration.

I further move that the Task Force express our sincere appreciation for the great amount of time and the diligent efforts put forth by the Task Force members in preparing this report.

Body

This report presents the findings and recommendations of the Inclusivity Task Force to the County Council. The purpose of the Task Force was to serve as an interim advisory body to study inclusivity issues in Los Alamos and recommend to the County Council ways to address those issues and promote a feeling of belonging for all community members.

The Task Force began meeting on October 30, 2024 and continued until February 18, 2026.
