1.0 Previous Calendar Year Work Plan Highlights

1.1 List the top five activities for the previous calendar year.

1.1.1

The HPAB received presentations by the county and the public on HP issues, concerns, and related projects.

1.1.2

HPAB Members researched the history of the Los Alamos Post Office clock tower and the Romero Cabin homestead signage.

1.1.3

HPAB members received training from the New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer's staff on Certified Local Governments

1.1.4

HPAB members attended meeting of other county boards, including Art in Public Places (APP), Parks and Recreation, and established coordination between overlapping projects where applicable, as well as attending meetings of the intra-board APP Homesteader's Working Group.

1.1.5

HPAB participated in May's Historic Preservation month activities to spread awareness of the board , its responsibilities, and some interesting ongoing projects and activities with the public.

1.2 List the top five accomplishments for the previous calendar year.

1.2.1

The HPAB promoted Historic Preservation Month (May) activities by (1) updating our brochure, (2) writing a Historic Preservation Month Proclamation for the County, and (3) joining the Los Alamos Historical Society at their table during the Spring Arts & Crafts Fair.

1.2.2

The HPAB received the County's Manhattan Project-Era Dormitory Project and recommended the Planning and Zoning Commission approves the project.

1.2.3

HPAB members researched and prepared materials on the history of the Los Alamos Post Office clock and processes by which to install a new clock in response to a public inquiry.

1.2.4

The HPAB determined that the Fuller Lodge Interpretive Plan has been implemented fully and requires no further work. It has reached completion.

1.3 List the lessons learned for the previous calendar year.

The Historic Preservation Advisory Board (HPAB) should continue to strengthen its partnerships with the County and other regional organizations that support historic preservation efforts. Enhancing collaboration will improve coordination, resource sharing, and overall preservation outcomes.

There is also a clear need to raise awareness of the HPAB's presence, purpose, and responsibilities both within County government and among the broader public. Increased visibility will help ensure that preservation priorities are better understood and integrated into planning and development processes.

In addition, the County should consider funding a full-time or part-time Cultural Resource Specialist, either as an employee or through a contractual arrangement. This position would be responsible for conducting and completing a comprehensive historic sites survey and serving as a liaison between the County and the HPAB. Establishing this role would provide dedicated professional support to advance preservation goals and strengthen coordination across agencies and stakeholders.

2.0 Calendar Year 2026 Work Plan

2.1 List any special projects or assignments given to this Board/Commission by Council or the Department Director.

2.1.1

HPAB is directed to participate in advisory board training coordinated by the Department, including instruction on board roles and responsibilities, effective meeting conduct, compliance with the New Mexico Open Meetings Act, and the importance of avoiding discussion of business before a meeting is called to order or after it has adjourned.

2.1.2

HPAB is directed to research and evaluate available federal and state grant funding opportunities related to the potential engagement of a cultural resource specialist. This assignment includes reviewing applicable Certified Local Government (CLG) requirements and standards, with specific attention to NMAC 4.10.10.19(G), and providing advisory input regarding eligibility, compliance considerations, and potential funding pathways.

2.1.3

2.1.4

2.1.5

2.2 List other projects and/or activities being proposed by this Board/Commission, in priority order.

2.2.1

Support efforts to fill HPAB membership vacancy positions and to maintain a fully staffed board membership.

2.2.2

The HPAB would like to better understand how the County identifies historic properties, determines efforts to historic properties by projects, follows the Secretary of the Interior's (DOI) Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties, and communications determinations with the New Mexico State Historic Preservation Officer.

2.2.3

The HPAB would like to better understand the Historic Preservation Master Plan contract and support the project and its outcomes.

2.2.4

The HPAB thinks the County should employ or contract a Cultural Resources Specialist in order to better support their projects and initiatives and to implement the upcoming Historic Preservation Master Plan. The HPAB will review the State's Certified Local Government guidelines and apply for any available grants .

2.2.5

Continue to participate in Historic Preservation Month (May) activities in order promote historic preservation, to raise awareness of the presence of the board and its mission, and to encourage community participation and comment.

2.2.6

2.3 List the guiding documents or plans used by this Board/Commission.
