5. COMMISSION TRAINING

A. PRESENTATION Commission Training by Los Alamos County Assistant County Attorney, Larissa D. Breen, regarding Quasi-Judicial Proceedings.

Larissa Breen, Los Alamos County Assistant Attorney, presented training on Quasi-Judicial proceedings covering topics such as, decision-making, identifying who has standing and is a party, procedures, keeping an orderly record, and deliberation.

The Commission had an opportunity to ask questions, answered by Ms. Breen and Katie Twaits, Deputy Attorney.

6. COMMISSION/DIRECTOR COMMUNICATIONS

A. Department Report

Dan Osborn, Acting Community Development Director, provided updates on vacant positions, and welcomed Rynn Herman, newly appointed Council Liaison. Desirae Lujan, Senior Planner, informed the Commission of a presentation by the Chief Building Official entitled "Before You Sign Your Lease" on Thursday, February 13th. The intent is to inform business owners, property managers, and commercial property owners of what to consider when moving into a commercial space. It will be recorded and posted on the website.

B. Chair's Report

Chair Easton polled the Commission on whether they were interested in receiving literature related to the work they do. The Commission welcomed the information and approved their contact information to be shared with each other. Ms. Twaits cautioned the Commission on rolling quorums.

C. Council Liaison's Report

Rynn Herman, Council Liaison, provided updates from County Council.

D. Commissioners' Comments

Commissioner White voiced appreciation for the training, and thanked staff for its coordination.
