

Q6 Los Alamos County Council recommended that this painting be placed in an alternative location, other than Fuller Lodge. Do you support that decision?

Answered: 270 Skipped: 22

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	29.26% 79
No	70.74% 191
TOTAL	270

#	ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:	DATE
1	Fuller Lodge is the right place to put this historic piece.	8/18/2021 1:34 PM
2	Above the fireplace sounds like an appropriate location. I can't compare to an alternate without knowing where the alternate location. Is.	8/16/2021 2:50 PM
3	If the piece is purchased for display, it should be displayed in Fuller Lodge in a prominent location, as it honors the youth of the Ranch School	8/16/2021 12:23 PM
4	What would be a better place for this subject matter other than Fuller Lodge? Something this costly should also be somewhere with high traffic.	8/16/2021 9:55 AM
5	I'm not sure where is a good location. Maybe the Historical Society?	8/14/2021 4:37 PM
6	Leave it with the seller. NOT worth the price	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
7	Another "anglo" perspective of a place that has been inhabited by many people throughout the centuries. And valued at $68,000.00! Seriously? Who actually is going to be getting the money. Your description does not specify who actually owns it.	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
8	I do not think this should be purchased for $68,000. This is too much for the product.	8/8/2021 7:47 PM
9	I'd prefer it IN the space where the Ranch School was.	8/8/2021 2:27 PM
10	Not sure, what's the alternative location? It seems like the Lodge would be an appropriate location since it was part of the Ranch School.	8/7/2021 9:37 PM
11	I do not think 68000 of taxpayer money should be spent on this work	8/6/2021 9:36 PM
12	I'm not sure where it might go, but an option might be to place it in the History Museum under supervision and with good security hanging methods. It could be rotated to the Lodge with	8/6/2021 9:31 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

similar care provisions or in Mesa Public Library or even the Betty Ehart Senior Center on an occasional basis.

13	Has anyone read Gore Vidal's biography? How is this even a consideration?	8/4/2021 11:12 PM
14	Boy Scouts as an organization has negative connotations as revealed in the last several years. A government acquisition of a compromised subject may be less favorable now more than ever.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
15	I think it should be placed above the fireplace in the main Fuller Lodge Hall. What are the reasons for not?	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
16	have to say, the lodge seems like an ideal place	8/3/2021 8:50 AM
17	Think it fits fuller lodge theme nicely.	8/3/2021 5:41 AM
18	Open—should be connected to the ranch school somewhere but doesn't need to be over the fireplace	8/2/2021 9:01 PM
19	I think the history strongly supports the painting to be in Fuller Lodge.	8/2/2021 8:26 PM
20	Indifferent to the location.	8/2/2021 2:11 PM
21	I support placing it in another location, but I believe the originally proposed location was fine.	8/2/2021 1:12 PM
22	Really depends on where it goes to be displayed	8/2/2021 12:47 PM
23	I thought it had already been approved for Fuller Lodge. Seems the most logical choice.	8/2/2021 12:31 PM
24	Cost of the painting is way too much. Stick with the local artist and the well known location depicted in The Golf Course.	8/2/2021 12:22 PM
25	I guess it depends on where that location is.	8/2/2021 11:29 AM
26	Very ugly	8/2/2021 6:05 AM
27	I think The fire place needs a large painting and the subject of this piece is perfect, since Troop 22 was founded at the Boys School.	8/2/2021 12:53 AM
28	I do not support the purchase of this painting	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
29	I think Fuller Lodge is the most appropriate site for the painting. I'd like to know their reasoning.	8/1/2021 8:55 PM
30	I'm not a fan of historical Boy Scouts art. Pedophilia was rampant apparently revealed from lawsuits	8/1/2021 4:57 PM
31	It fits Fuller Lodge, but I'd be interested in hearing the alternative ideas.	8/1/2021 4:14 PM
32	Fuller lodge makes the most logical sense for this painting	8/1/2021 4:05 PM
33	Too expensive.	8/1/2021 3:34 PM
34	Fuller Lodge would be perfect.	8/1/2021 3:24 PM
35	This is too expensive	8/1/2021 3:14 PM
36	Where would it go?	8/1/2021 12:30 PM
37	I don't know why a move was suggested. I like it where it is.	8/1/2021 12:02 PM
38	It should not be placed anywhere. I do not appreciate my tax dollars being spent on such nonsense. If Los Alamos county has extra monies, spend it on affordable housing or something else for the poor.	8/1/2021 11:28 AM
39	This painting should not be purchased. The Boy Scouts have a long history of abuse and discriminatory practices. While I appreciate their role in Los Alamos history, the organization does not deserve to be idealized in any way, especially not at this price point!	8/1/2021 11:16 AM
40	This should not be purchased.	8/1/2021 10:42 AM
41	It really depends on the alternative location. For the exceptional price, would the painting be located somewhere that has good public access and is appropriate for the piece? The Lodge is appropriate, but so could the Bath Tub Row museum homes or government building on Central.	8/1/2021 9:52 AM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

42	I think, if we buy it, that Fuller Lodge is the perfect place for it.	8/1/2021 9:44 AM
43	That is a ridiculous amount for a painting. They are cutting the arts offerings at the high school due to budget constraints - I can't see why a painting is worth more than educating children in the arts.	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
44	I like the Fuller Lodge idea	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
45	I don't think the county should buy it; therefore, no location	8/1/2021 9:32 AM
46	I don't go inside the lodge	8/1/2021 9:31 AM
47	Way too expensive	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
48	Fuller Lodge seems like the right place, but will it get the visibility it deserves?	8/1/2021 8:54 AM
49	Depends on where because it should be placed in a spot that reflects the history of the boy's ranch school.	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
50	It's perfect for the space and it's historical theme	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
51	Cost is too high. Not liking the subject only including boys.	8/1/2021 8:32 AM
52	It's a lovely painting, are the early scouts a big part of Los Alamos?	8/1/2021 8:02 AM
53	A Fuller Lodge location seems most most appropriate from a historic standpoint.	8/1/2021 7:56 AM
54	Fuller lodge seems like the only appropriate place for this painting.	8/1/2021 7:54 AM
55	The trash	8/1/2021 7:44 AM
56	Why was that recommendation made? Fuller Lodge seems like the only place it would be appropriate on display in the county.	8/1/2021 7:39 AM
57	This makes sense in a historic ranch school building. Also, it was approved by your board years ago. I'm unsure why this is still up for debate. There are many locations where this could go in Fuller Lodge choose any of them and move forward.	8/1/2021 7:29 AM
58	I don't support purchasing it	8/1/2021 7:22 AM
59	Should be in Fuller Lodge, part of the Ranch School. Perhaps a good alternative location would be the history museum.	8/1/2021 6:26 AM
60	Love the piece. The price is ridiculously high and this is coming from an art collector.	8/1/2021 5:51 AM
61	It's gross and artistically insignificant. APP mission is to celebrate art and educate. This is a fake image of a non-existing situation.	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
62	Would be nice at the Posse Lodge	8/1/2021 12:37 AM
63	This painting is hideous and does not belong within the Los Alamos collection.	7/31/2021 11:35 PM
64	I like this location better than the first. This is a beautiful painting by a local, nationally-recognized artist. It depicts a part of the history of this town.	7/31/2021 11:20 PM
65	Maybe the posse lodge	7/31/2021 11:01 PM
66	I think it represents the boys of Fuller Lodge school and is appropriate in that spot.	7/31/2021 10:41 PM
67	Cost is too much	7/31/2021 10:35 PM
68	It should not be purchased for that outrageous price.	7/31/2021 10:33 PM
69	Undecided, seems like a fair picture. Maybe a rotation schedule could be put in place?	7/31/2021 10:32 PM
70	Shouldn't be purchased at all	7/31/2021 10:31 PM
71	Alternate should be considered	7/31/2021 10:16 PM
72	Don't support it being anywhere due to ridiculous price tag	7/31/2021 10:08 PM
73	Please don't purchase or place anywhere in LA.	7/31/2021 10:00 PM
74	I don't support buying art that cost $68000.	7/31/2021 9:57 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

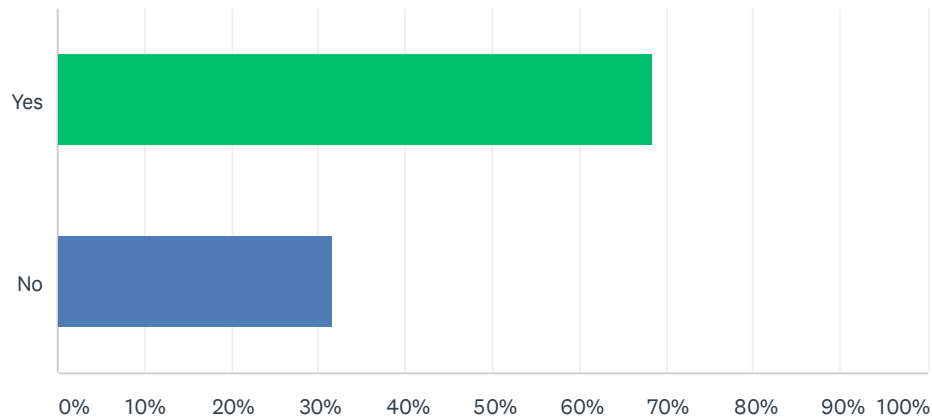

75	Yes. I think Fuller Lodge is already full of artistic and architectural interest. This painting should be showcased in a more visible place where it does not compete with other pieces.	7/31/2021 9:52 PM
76	This pricing is obscene. Use these funds to repair the potholes on residential streets	7/31/2021 9:51 PM
77	Fuller lodge seems like the most logical place for a scout painting	7/31/2021 9:46 PM
78	I don't think it should be purchased at all	7/31/2021 9:36 PM
79	I feel that Fuller Lodge would be the best place for this painting, but no matter where it goes I feel this is a great rendition and speaks to the history of Los Alamos.	7/31/2021 6:54 PM
80	What? Did Los Alamos County already purchase this awful painting?	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
81	Should not be placed in a public building in Los Alamos.	7/31/2021 4:31 PM
82	Because of its direct relationship to Fuller Lodge and the Boys Ranch School, I feel that Fuller Lodge is more appropriate than anywhere else in Los Alamos.	7/31/2021 12:32 PM
83	Although Fuller Lodge is the most appropriate location.	7/31/2021 9:30 AM
84	I do not support the purchase of this piece of art. It is not by a local artist and is way too expensive.	7/30/2021 8:32 PM
85	Not sure where?	7/30/2021 6:26 PM
86	Find a New Mexico artist or gallery.	7/30/2021 6:21 PM
87	If this painting is chosen, Fuller Lodge seems like the best fit for the style and era depicted.	7/30/2021 5:19 PM
88	If it is not appropriate there then I don't think it belongs anyplace else other than someplace in the lodge.	7/30/2021 5:08 PM
89	Fuller Lodge is an appropriate location for the painting, but the price is an inappropriate use of public funds	7/30/2021 2:15 PM
90	Should stay at Fuller lodge	7/30/2021 11:44 AM
91	Overpriced. Slight objection to subject depiction. Aren't Boy Scouts different than the the Ranch School boys? Why would the Council choose this at all? Too many issues.	7/30/2021 11:02 AM
92	No. This painting has no place anywhere in our public owned spaces. Are you trying to titillate the pedophiles? Do you want to give them a monument? For survivors, like myself, this is an affront against the very purpose of government and the community it putatively represents (to represent ALL of the people). If this is the representation that the Boy Scouts choose to put forward, then they've told us what they want to attract: nubile flesh. If the county of Los Alamos places this painting anywhere in our public places the message will be clear: We do not value those terrorized, molested, and victimized by this organization in our community. We cannot recognize history without re-traumatizing many of our most contributing citizens.	7/30/2021 12:12 AM
93	The colors, size, and subject make Fuller Lodge the perfect location.	7/29/2021 10:38 PM
94	I support it being placed in the trash bin of history. Why is this still being considered?	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
95	It depends where.	7/29/2021 1:36 PM
96	Fuller Lodge is the most appropriate place	7/28/2021 10:09 PM
97	I have no opinion on the location.	7/28/2021 9:50 PM
98	What in the hell is wrong with you wasting this much money on this crap?	7/28/2021 9:49 PM
99	Too expensive. Ridiculous!	7/28/2021 9:46 PM
100	Depends on where. The lodge seems like the logical place	7/28/2021 8:06 PM
101	I think Fuller Lodge is great since it was used by the Ranch School and is an ode to its history.	7/28/2021 7:05 PM
102	I believe that it should be in Fuller Lodge, which was built by the Ranch School.	7/28/2021 3:53 PM
103	Do not put that in Fuller Lodge.	7/28/2021 1:55 PM
104	It should not be in the Los Alamos county collection	7/28/2021 1:38 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

105	No opinion	7/28/2021 11:32 AM
106	The Lodge is literally the last remaining public space where the Boy Scouts were based/born/home. It should be hung in the Fuller Lodge.	7/28/2021 11:10 AM
107	This needs to be in a main room where it can be seen. $68000 is too much for a painting if it won't be seen by many people (because people don't go upstairs at Fuller Lodge.)	7/28/2021 9:31 AM

Q7 Do you believe Fuller Lodge is an appropriate location for this art piece?

Answered: 282 Skipped: 10

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	68.44%	193
No	31.56%	89
TOTAL		282

#	ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:	DATE
1	I think the content is appropriate, but not at that price point	8/19/2021 8:45 AM
2	I feel an expense of that magnitude should be accessible. Seems like the Historical Society is a better fit.	8/14/2021 4:37 PM
3	Fuller Lodge is dusty and not well maintained	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
4	Why not find another perspective of the history of this place?	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
5	Yes, but it is still way too expensive. It will be a reminder of the excess of Los Alamos. I would rather see a more interactive piece for $68,000.	8/8/2021 7:47 PM
6	Fuller lodge is a work of art in snd of itself. It doesn't need this memory.	8/6/2021 9:36 PM
7	IF IT IS PROTECTED AND SECURED WITH THE BEST SECURITY HOOKS, ETC. I could look attractive over one of the fireplaces or on a wall of the Pajarito Room.	8/6/2021 9:31 PM
8	No. The Boy Scouts overlooked inappropriate sexual advances and interactions between leaders and boys -- interactions that have been suggested to have occurred at the Los Alamos Ranch School.	8/4/2021 11:12 PM
9	It's a public venue and there may be a chance that a victim of the Boy Scouts might encounter a government-sponsored piece of art on display. This would be a disservice to the community and the potential harm is preventable with a decision against this purchase.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
10	It gives reference to the origins of fuller lodge and the LARS.	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
11	Yes I think it is quite appropriate. It depicts the very important history of the Los Alamos Ranch School in its earliest days before the government stepped in for the sake of our country. Fuller Lodge is the iconic landmark of our community and Segler's depiction of the boys who lived here visually pulls the whole story together. This was the boys Lodge. "Boys of Pajarito Plateau" belongs here.	8/3/2021 11:09 AM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

12	Any ranch school connected building	8/2/2021 9:01 PM
13	This painting should not be purchased.	8/2/2021 3:16 PM
14	As a key building in our community, I believe Fuller lodge is the best place for a painting that recognizes the history and the group that gave us that building.	8/2/2021 1:12 PM
15	Seems historical and appropriate to tie into the lodges history	8/2/2021 12:47 PM
16	It has to do with the history of the community - and Fuller Lodge in particular.	8/2/2021 12:31 PM
17	It doesn't belong anywhere	8/2/2021 6:05 AM
18	I do not support this purchase	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
19	This painting should not be purchased. The Boy Scouts have a long history of abuse and discriminatory practices. While I appreciate their role in Los Alamos history, the organization does not deserve to be idealized in any way, especially not at this price point!	8/1/2021 11:16 AM
20	If you are going to do it, it seems the right place but that is still an outrageous price.	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
21	Not enough traffic	8/1/2021 9:31 AM
22	Way too expensive	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
23	Just not sure it will get the visibility it deserves.	8/1/2021 8:54 AM
24	Seems like much to expensive of a piece for the lodge. Security would be required.	8/1/2021 8:02 AM
25	Yes, because of the origins of the Lodge.	8/1/2021 7:56 AM
26	Fuller Lodge seems like the only place it would be appropriate on display in the county.	8/1/2021 7:39 AM
27	I don't support purchasing it	8/1/2021 7:22 AM
28	Would fit in well there.	8/1/2021 7:02 AM
29	It would be a disgrace for the existing art selected to grace the lodge over the years. Such painting done in the 1950s may have had some historical significance. Today, it is just a sad example of misuse of public funding by a board not fulfilling its primary mission well - celebrate the (outdoors) arts and today's (not yesterday's) community.	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
30	Or the Posse Lodge	8/1/2021 12:37 AM
31	Boy Scouts is a like the Catholic Church now. It's unfortunate. Not sure why money is going to their official artist. I would hope that none of the money for the sale would benefit the Boy Scout foundation.	7/31/2021 10:37 PM
32	Do not purchase this.	7/31/2021 10:33 PM
33	Don't buy it	7/31/2021 10:31 PM
34	Msybe	7/31/2021 10:16 PM
35	If it were purchased, that would be an appropriate location. At the exorbitant cost, it shouldn't be purchased by our County government.	7/31/2021 9:57 PM
36	This painting is NOT appropriate for ANY location on County property.	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
37	Ranch school boys belong in Fuller Lodge	7/31/2021 4:04 PM
38	Fuller Lodge was part of the Los Alamos Ranch School, so a painting of students of the school is appropriate.	7/31/2021 12:26 PM
39	Pajarito Room or the Ante Room is best.	7/31/2021 9:30 AM
40	I do not support the expenditure of over $68000 to purchase this piece.	7/30/2021 8:32 PM
41	Possibly	7/30/2021 6:26 PM
42	I believe we should support NM, what about a Native artist from nearby Pueblos?	7/30/2021 6:21 PM
43	This should go to the Boy Scout camp in eastern New Mexico, not in Los Alamos.	7/30/2021 11:02 AM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

44	As an artist (I've been painting in oils since I was eight) I know it's never too late to revisit a piece. Maybe the artist could be decent and provide us something worthy of such prominence.	7/30/2021 12:12 AM
45	We hold pride events at Fuller lodge...let's not be blatant hypocrites.	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
46	Fuller Lodge is ok, but the historical museum should also be considered	7/29/2021 8:50 AM
47	No comment.	7/28/2021 9:50 PM
48	The appropriate location is the garbage.	7/28/2021 9:49 PM
49	These are Boys from the Ranch School. We owe the Ranch School (and these boys) a debt of gratitude for building our most iconic Community Building, Fuller Lodge.	7/28/2021 8:10 PM
50	It should not be in the Los Alamos county collection	7/28/2021 1:38 PM
51	This shows a piece of Los Alamos history. I do not think it necessarily needs to be in Fuller Lodge.	7/28/2021 12:24 PM
52	I don't see where else it could possibly go.	7/28/2021 11:50 AM
53	Yes, but NOT in the Pajarito Room	7/28/2021 11:10 AM
54	I am uncomfortable with continuing to center white experiences in our community and historical outreach, including this particular art piece.	7/28/2021 9:31 AM

Q8 An alternative location within Fuller Lodge may have been identified; the first landing of the stairs off the lobby, leading to the Fuller Lodge Offices. Would you support this location as an alternative?

Answered: 279 Skipped: 13

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	43.73% 122
No	43.01% 120
Additional Comments:	13.26% 37
TOTAL	279

#	ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:	DATE
1	If we are spending 70k, I'd like It to be front and center.	8/16/2021 2:50 PM
2	For the staff to look at? Ridiculous Perhaps there's space in a restroom (or several) as rotating exhibits? No need for this and who asked the artist to paint the LA troop? They can buy it for themselves	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
3	Has the piece already been purchased? Again, it is pretty boring piece. Photographs would have served.	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
4	For that much money, I'd hope for a prominent spot—one residents and tourists alike could view. Perhaps in the Manhattan Project NHP? Appropriate (although the current venue isn't ideal).	8/8/2021 2:27 PM
5	I do not think hhis painting should be purchased thus the location is irrelevant	8/6/2021 9:36 PM
6	It's a public venue and there may be a chance that a victim of the Boy Scouts might encounter a government-sponsored piece of art on display. This would be a disservice to the community and the potential harm is preventable with a decision against this purchase.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
7	The best location for this painting would be in Fuller Lodge. Moreover, I believe this painting would best be located above the fireplace in Fuller Lodge.	8/4/2021 7:40 PM
8	This puts it out of normal traffic patterns and not generally viewable.	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
9	This is better than locating it outside of Fuller Lodge, but seems like a less appropriate location than the original proposal, given the scale and value of the painting. It seems like it is being	8/2/2021 1:12 PM hidden away. Perhaps it would be better to locate the painting somewhere in the tiled section of Fuller lodge that is used by most people who enter the building.

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

10	But the original location over the fireplace would be better. Why was the decision changed to move it elsewhere? I don't understand why this county constantly flip flops on decisions.	8/2/2021 12:31 PM
11	I do not support the purchase of this painting	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
12	I'd have to go over and look first. But, that seems, in just thinking about it, that that would be a 2nd or 3rd best location. I can't remember what's over the fireplace now.	8/1/2021 8:55 PM
13	Hidden	8/1/2021 5:14 PM
14	Not art	8/1/2021 3:14 PM
15	Seems out of the way for such an expensive piece. I like the history it portrays.	8/1/2021 12:02 PM
16	For that price, it should be placed where the most people can see it as they pass through.	8/1/2021 11:51 AM
17	no comment, let someone knowledgeable decide.	8/1/2021 9:52 AM
18	Way too expensive.	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
19	For $70k that painting better be displayed large and in charge	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
20	Either location within Fuller Lodge is appropriate historically but the fireplace location would be most appropriate and would showcase the piece the best. The staircase location is too close to the scout photo already on display in the lobby.	8/1/2021 7:56 AM
21	I guess but I doesn't seem like many people will see it there.	8/1/2021 7:54 AM
22	Maybe. But given the cost - exorbitant - why purchase it at all if only to stick it in a corner? Better to use the money on something more appropriate.	8/1/2021 7:39 AM
23	For the price, this painting should be in a prominent location where the public routinely can enjoy it.	8/1/2021 7:02 AM
24	As previously discussed, it would be a disgraceful addition to the meaningful art displayed at Fuller Lodge representing the County/Fuller lodge history, its best artists and craftspeople. Oppenheimer was there, so was Feynman and many others who made this place exceptional. How does that reflect on them - on us as a community?	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
25	Seems like we're trying to hide it?	7/31/2021 10:22 PM
26	Please don't purchase or place anywhere in LA.	7/31/2021 10:00 PM
27	Why are we EVEN discussing this? The painting depicts "boys" who are scouts and Not At All associated with the Boys School (scholars). There is a shirtless youth in the painting. Do you really want to draw attention to the boys and shirtless youth and the Boy Scouts of America $850,000,000. settlement of tens of thousands of sexual abuse victims?! https://www.nbcnews.com/news/us-news/boy-scouts-reach-850-million-settlement-tens-thousands-sexual-abuse-n1272955	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
28	That location has poor lighting.	7/31/2021 12:32 PM
29	The stairwell location is fine. The original proposed location above the fireplace was not.	7/31/2021 12:26 PM
30	As last resort. The painting deserves a better location, it was requested and is currently on loan to the Medici Museum of Art in Ohio hanging next to over 60 Norman Rockwell originals.	7/31/2021 9:30 AM
31	As stated, this is not at all appropriate for Los Alamos, much less the Lodge.	7/30/2021 11:02 AM
32	There is no place in our public places that this painting is anything but wrong.	7/30/2021 12:12 AM
33	Absolutely not. We hold pride events at Fuller lodge this has no place in our county art collection.	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
34	Unsure	7/29/2021 9:35 AM
35	No comment on location	7/28/2021 9:50 PM
36	Seems like a lot of money not to display it prominently	7/28/2021 8:06 PM

Q9 Do you feel that this piece would be a good fit within the Los Alamos County Public Art Collection?

Answered: 283 Skipped: 9

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	56.18%	159
No	43.82%	124
TOTAL		283

#	ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:	DATE
1	But not at that price	8/19/2021 8:45 AM
2	Depressing and faces are misshapen	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
3	Who owns it? There isn't enough information here.	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
4	Very much so.	8/8/2021 2:27 PM
5	Too expensive	8/7/2021 8:36 PM
6	Too expensive	8/7/2021 6:15 PM
7	It is quite a high price for an individual piece of art. Perhaps the County has the resources to make this kind of expenditure, but there could also be quite a public outcry if a majority thought it was more expensive than they are comfortable in supporting.	8/6/2021 9:31 PM
8	Not unless the County is interested in discussing publicly suggestions that Connell was touching the young men.	8/4/2021 11:12 PM
9	This would be a disservice to the community and the potential harm is preventable with a decision against this purchase.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
10	Its definitely a historical reference for the community.	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
11	The connection to the unique history of los alamos is excellent	8/2/2021 9:01 PM
12	As a former Boy Scout, I think it is definitely too Boy Scout-y and just looks like contrived . I understand that it may be roughly how they dressed at the LA Boys' School, but this depiction is just too set up and not very natural. Almost like a propaganda poster.	8/2/2021 2:11 PM
13	70 grand for one painting! Maybe the golf course painting isn't as bad as I thought! Obviously the county is just pissing money away at this point!	8/2/2021 1:53 PM
14	No one will see this if you place it over the stairs. This piece definitely reflects the much-	8/2/2021 12:53 AM overlooked history of Los Alamos.

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

15	It costs way too much!	8/1/2021 11:03 PM
16	Except for the cost	8/1/2021 10:55 PM
17	Not at all	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
18	Too expensive	8/1/2021 9:49 PM
19	This painting should reside in the Los Alamos community where it can be seen	8/1/2021 4:05 PM
20	This painting should not be purchased. The Boy Scouts have a long history of abuse and discriminatory practices. While I appreciate their role in Los Alamos history, the organization does not deserve to be idealized in any way, especially not at this price point!	8/1/2021 11:16 AM
21	Most local people would immediately identify the painting with our original school at the lodge.	8/1/2021 9:52 AM
22	Too expensive	8/1/2021 9:32 AM
23	Way too expensive	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
24	It's a regional piece	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
25	Way too expensive	8/1/2021 8:21 AM
26	Way too expensive.	8/1/2021 8:02 AM
27	This piece is beautiful but when I see it it makes me feel uncomfortable. It feels like a celebration of colonization.	8/1/2021 7:54 AM
28	Do not support this purchase.	8/1/2021 7:39 AM
29	$68,500 is too expensive for a county art collection."	8/1/2021 6:45 AM
30	Custom piece by a local nationally renown artist including a subject of our local history. Hard to imagine anything more appropriate.	8/1/2021 6:26 AM
31	Don't purchase. Way too expensive!	8/1/2021 5:53 AM
32	Absolutely NOT (cc. previous comments). I apologize to JW Segler, in advance, this not personal. Our community has such rich inheritance and pool of talents - a fiction by a non local does serve APP or the community well.	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
33	This painting is hideous and does not belong within the Los Alamos collection.	7/31/2021 11:35 PM
34	Too expensive	7/31/2021 11:32 PM
35	Seriously, $68K for a painting? That money can't be used anywhere else??	7/31/2021 10:31 PM
36	No! Spend the money on things we need such as broadband, infrastructure improvements, maintenance of Fuller lodge, library purchases or almost anything else. Spend it on two or three pieces that could be placed more prominently than on a stairwell or other "alternate location".	7/31/2021 9:57 PM
37	$68,500? Some people in this county don't even earn that much money. When several businesses were lost to the pandemic, the county wants to spend this kind of money? Does not seem right!	7/31/2021 9:53 PM
38	Yes, but I cannot believe the high price.	7/31/2021 9:52 PM
39	The price is insane. Also, Santa Fe and Northern Nee Mexico has a rich artistic community. Why spend so much money and not support local artists	7/31/2021 9:46 PM
40	The cost is ridiculous. Surely we can find a local artist that can render something that ties to the Lodge...	7/31/2021 9:36 PM
41	Hell No! Who chose this? For the love of God, we are better than this.	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
42	It is Los Alamos history	7/31/2021 4:04 PM
43	It is too specific in subject matter to be blended into the general collection	7/31/2021 12:32 PM
44	It is not by a local artist and is way too expensive.	7/30/2021 8:32 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

45	Very pricey	7/30/2021 5:28 PM
46	I'm really not sure. I understand the hesitation people have. If it bothers people, there are probably better choices.	7/30/2021 5:19 PM
47	no opinion.	7/30/2021 5:08 PM
48	Yes but the price is unforgivable	7/30/2021 2:15 PM
49	See previous statements regarding reservations. Overpriced. Objectionable depiction. Wrong type of scouts?	7/30/2021 11:02 AM
50	This has no place in our art collection, too idolatry and idolizing a terrible and abusive institution that has left a tortured scar across the entire country... fuck this piece the same way my scout leader fucked me and countless others	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
51	Very expensive	7/29/2021 1:01 PM
52	This painting is ridiculously expensive. So, no.	7/28/2021 9:50 PM
53	Way too expensive, plus we have too many Segler pieces in LA County. Please choose another artist, please.	7/28/2021 9:29 PM
54	Love it. Plus it's painted by a local.	7/28/2021 7:05 PM
55	Seems like an expensive piece that we are struggling to find a location	7/28/2021 11:32 AM
56	Again, we should consider de-centering the white experience when we accumulate our art.	7/28/2021 9:31 AM
57	This piece is cost prohibitive. How can we approve a purchase of a painting that costs this much when there are other needs around the county? The utility lines need to be updated. The county has been putting bandages on breaks in the lines for too long.	7/28/2021 9:17 AM

Q10 Do you believe that this piece would create controversy given the connection to the Boys Scouts of America?

Answered: 268 Skipped: 24

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	38.43% 103
No	61.57% 165
TOTAL	268

#	ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:	DATE
1	Maybe for the price as well	8/13/2021 4:48 AM
2	County should not be supporting the pedophile associations Horrendous for our community to display and support	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
3	Oh, yeah, that too...	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
4	It's time to rethink what Los Alamos wants to be known for. There is proof of local history everywhere. I would recommend you rethink purchasing conventional art (painting) and look into a more modern art medium. Stick with the brand of the town, "Where discoveries are made" and let go of repetitive ranch school/Manhattan era art. It is dating the town which already looks dilapidated and out of touch with technology/retail development.	8/8/2021 7:47 PM
5	Someone will always find an objection, but I think people here are smart enough to separate past from present. The presence of Scouts in Los Alamos is fact. It's historical. It happened—separate from the BSA organization today. Nuclear weapons are more controversial, yet we have a museum about them here. And statues (rightly) of Oppenheimer and Groves.	8/8/2021 2:27 PM
6	Possibly, I was a Boy Scout in Los Alamos and there were many others in the community over the years. I am familiar with some of the issues with Scouting nationally, but it seems to have been part of Los Alamos since the Ranch School days	8/7/2021 9:37 PM
7	I'm happy we are engaging in these discussions but I think many folks will feel a connection to the LA than the Boy Scouts	8/7/2021 11:22 AM
8	That's hard to say. It reflects a time BEFORE the controversy became a deep cause for concern however, there were rumors even during the Ranch School days that certain staff had perhaps acted inappropriately. So there could be current objections. I'm not able to give a yes or no definitive response on this one.	8/6/2021 9:31 PM
9	From Gore Vidal's biography: "The boys were subject to weekly physical inspections in the nurse's office by two of the masters. Connell, though, was usually there --... Oscar Steege, the	8/4/2021 11:12 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

history master, thought "there was an erotic element in Connell's touching the boys.... That he had a sexual interest in the boys was generally recognized by us at the school.""

10	Absolutely. There is no way to predict with certainty that no harm would be done to anyone who may have been a victim and therefore the prudent thing to do is to protect at the first opportunity by not purchasing or displaying it.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
11	Some people create controversy over anything but there shouldn't be any reason to for this.	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
12	Do you think Los Alamos created controversy because of its mission? Sometimes you take the risk simply for the sake of truth. These boys are who lived here—that is a fact. The bulk of these boys went on to become corporate business owners, respected politicians, and leaders in their communities—those are facts. I was a cub scout, boy scout, and explorer scout here in Los Alamos. That painting represents a wonderful time in the history of Los Alamos. When I was involved in scouting here in our community, I looked up to those boys as something to be revered. Their rugged strength and commitment to that lifestyle was something I admired. Let's not revise history. Let's let that story be told because it is true.	8/3/2021 11:09 AM
13	Money isn't going to scouts, so it isn't supporting them directly. It is celebrating the legacy of the ranch school.	8/3/2021 8:50 AM
14	Why is Los Alamos buying an extremely expensive ugly painting of Boy Scouts? This is not a good choice.	8/2/2021 3:16 PM
15	Again, speaking as a former Boy Scout, I don't think the boys in Boy Scouts are the problem. However, I do think this is way too boy scout-y and could be seen as a propaganda piece for BSA. It's really just bad art.	8/2/2021 2:11 PM
16	Especially with the one kid without a shirt	8/2/2021 1:53 PM
17	Fuller Lodge itself, and arguably the entire town, is connected to the Boy Scouts of America. There is no reason this should be problematic.	8/2/2021 1:12 PM
18	Maybe but it's still part of the history of the town. BSA has made HUGE strides to protect its youth going forward. The abuse is terrible and never should have happened but unfortunately it happened in almost every organization that had mixing of children and adults - schools, churches etc.	8/2/2021 12:31 PM
19	Not any worthwhile controversy.	8/2/2021 11:29 AM
20	BSA is a part of LAC's history	8/1/2021 10:55 PM
21	Most likely it would create too much controversy	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
22	I would have thought that it would have created controversy when they were discriminating against whole sections of society. But, I think they have moved on from their hateful policies. So, I wouldn't think it would cause controversy now.	8/1/2021 8:55 PM
23	Who cares	8/1/2021 5:14 PM
24	But the price would!!!	8/1/2021 3:34 PM
25	Quite possibly, but it is a piece of history so I'm not sure the controversy is meaningful.	8/1/2021 12:30 PM
26	Maybe	8/1/2021 12:18 PM
27	I think most of us can handle truth.	8/1/2021 12:02 PM
28	This painting should not be purchased. The Boy Scouts have a long history of abuse and discriminatory practices. While I appreciate their role in Los Alamos history, the organization does not deserve to be idealized in any way, especially not at this price point!	8/1/2021 11:16 AM
29	The Boy Scouts are still a loved institution! And these boys aren't even identified as boy scouts.	8/1/2021 9:52 AM
30	Why on earth would that be controversial?	8/1/2021 9:44 AM
31	Regardless it is a part of history of the Boys Ranch School	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
32	No. Being associated with BSA is its main attribute.	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
33	Only if the money benefits the Boy Scouts. If it does, I would not support the purchase.	8/1/2021 8:54 AM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

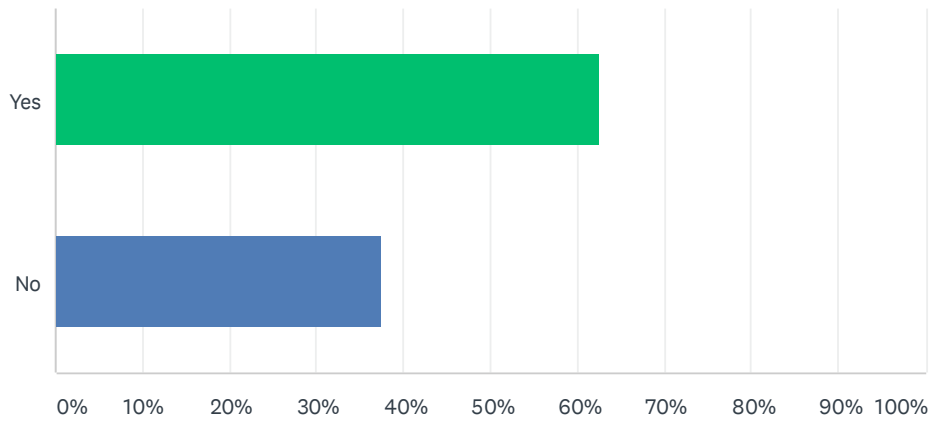

34	Probably, everyone is offended	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
35	We need to get over political correctness and just deal with real history in this town...	8/1/2021 8:50 AM
36	Anything can be controversial- perhaps a teaching opportunity.	8/1/2021 8:11 AM
37	We love Boy Scouts themselves.	8/1/2021 8:02 AM
38	The piece highlights an important part of Los Alamos history, and one of the first BSA troops nationally.	8/1/2021 7:56 AM
39	The Boy Scouts were not the first people here. Why not a painting of the indigenous people who this land truly belongs to?	8/1/2021 7:54 AM
40	The painter was the official BSA painter, that's the only connection. It also means that the artist is excellent and went to painstaking work recreating this piece. If you haven't already done so, listen to him speak about the process and painstaking work he did to capture the detail. There is no controversy because there is no real connection to the BSA.	8/1/2021 7:29 AM
41	No, it's history.	8/1/2021 6:45 AM
42	I was a scout, and support the scouts to this day. I don't see any redeeming value in selecting such an artwork for Fuller Lodge that has a much richer and consequential history.	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
43	Whatever issues people have with the BSA are with that organization, not with the scout troop that is depicted here. People get uptight about a lot of things, but I still think this should be in our collection.	7/31/2021 11:20 PM
44	It's a part of history, that's what matters	7/31/2021 11:01 PM
45	The subsequent apparent donation of $68k could	7/31/2021 10:32 PM
46	Is this some kind of joke? The very existence of Los Alamos is inextricably connected to BSA Troop 22 and the Ranch School.	7/31/2021 10:22 PM
47	BSA has a problematic history and we should not be supporting their "National Artist." The organization is trying to make changes, and after they continue on that path perhaps some county support would be viable.	7/31/2021 10:00 PM
48	Doesn't for me. It is our history.	7/31/2021 9:53 PM
49	The controversy is from the absurd price.	7/31/2021 9:46 PM
50	This is another valid concern.	7/31/2021 9:36 PM
51	I do not see visually a direct connection to BSA	7/31/2021 6:54 PM
52	Controversy is OK in art. This painting would cause PTSD, and it is not appropriate. Would you hang an image of Harvey Weinstein on the wall as public art in Los Alamos County? Hopefully not. But this would be equivalent.	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
53	Yes.	7/31/2021 4:31 PM
54	Jeff Segler's appointment as official BSA Artist in the company of Norman Rockwell is an honor that Los Alamos should be proud of and we should display that art. Current Scouts in Los Alamos County are not controversial, they work hard to serve the community and learn leadership.	7/31/2021 4:04 PM
55	Yes, even historical pieces are controversial these days....	7/31/2021 12:48 PM
56	Definitely not!	7/31/2021 12:32 PM
57	Uniforms are representative of the Los Alamos Ranch School, a part of Los Alamos history. A plaque can explain its historical significance.	7/31/2021 12:26 PM
58	This is a commemorative painting to the 100th Anniversary of the Los Alamos Ranch School, it has nothing to do with the Boy Scouts of America. LARS is the reason Los Alamos National Laboratory exists.	7/31/2021 9:30 AM
59	It's part of our history, I see no controversy	7/30/2021 6:51 PM
60	Possibly	7/30/2021 6:26 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

61	For me, at least, it is off-putting	7/30/2021 5:17 PM
62	Not for me, do not know about others. I have 3 sons that are Eagle Scouts.	7/30/2021 5:08 PM
63	No, it is context appropriate despite current controversies	7/30/2021 2:15 PM
64	I should think there would be controversy due it's depiction (shirtless boy; gay-possible identity that BSA is trying to suppress), inaccuracies (Ranch School boys), landscape location. It brings up questions about the author/artist.	7/30/2021 11:02 AM
65	It would be a constant reminder if rape, sexual assault, abuse, and would bring up PTSD in many people.	7/30/2021 1:12 AM
66	If you mean rampant pedophilia within the organization and members of our community, including myself, being disturbed that our government would place this in our publicly owned space, then yes, it would create controversy. Nubile flesh for the pedophiles and a monument to their conquests might be controversial.	7/30/2021 12:12 AM
67	Controversy means people talk to each other. Start the conversation. The Boy Scouts were real. They were history. They were a big part of original Los Alamos. Life moves on. The painting is a beautiful piece. Pair it with another if you like to keep the conversation balanced.	7/29/2021 11:43 PM
68	Only if you are dumb enough to select it.	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
69	Possibly, especially considering the enormous cost of the work	7/29/2021 9:35 AM
70	Probably, but the Boy Scouts are a part of our history here in Los Alamos. I don't love the piece, but would support it.	7/28/2021 8:26 PM
71	These are Ranch School Boys.	7/28/2021 8:10 PM
72	Maybe. Seems to me it's more about the history, and I'm not a huge fan of BSA	7/28/2021 8:06 PM
73	It's part of the history of our area. The organization has come under scrutiny recently but what Boy Scouts stands for in general is admirable. I don't think an entire organization should be villainized by a few bad actors (which are present in other organizations, companies around the world as well).	7/28/2021 7:05 PM
74	And why is one of them not wearing a shirt?	7/28/2021 1:55 PM
75	This piece should not be in the Los Alamos county collection	7/28/2021 1:38 PM
76	I believe there may be some controversy but Troop 22 is an important part of Los Alamos history and should be recognized for all of the positive contributions they have made to the community.	7/28/2021 12:24 PM
77	Possibly	7/28/2021 11:32 AM
78	There is no need to glorify an organization with a long history of abuse, racism and promotion of nationalism in a town that already centers such topics in abundance.	7/28/2021 9:31 AM
79	The ties/history of the Boy Scouts to the Ranch School is part of our history. If people have a problem, teach them the history instead of caving to their whimsy.	7/28/2021 9:31 AM

Q11 Do you like the painting titled "Boys of Pajarito Plateau"? (refer to picture above)

Answered: 285 Skipped: 7

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Yes	62.46%	178
No	37.54%	107
TOTAL		285

Q12 Any additional comments you would like to provide about "Boys of Pajarito Plateau", by Jeff Segler

Answered: 172 Skipped: 120

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	TOO EXPENSIVE	8/19/2021 9:33 PM
2	Beautiful painting, but too much to pay using public funds. Let Segler sell it to a private collector.	8/19/2021 8:45 AM
3	Nope	8/19/2021 5:56 AM
4	Maybe a bit pricey -- but a good piece.	8/18/2021 1:34 PM
5	I appreciate its large size and being an oil painting. I'm sure it's interesting to look at.	8/16/2021 2:50 PM
6	It's extremely expensive. It should only be purchased if it will be displayed in a high traffic area. Please do not spend this much money on something that will go in a stairwell!	8/16/2021 9:55 AM
7	I think this piece is not an appropriate County acquisition.	8/14/2021 4:37 PM
8	Absolutely skip this one. Yuck and perverse given the seedy history of molestation	8/11/2021 3:04 PM
9	Thank you for asking me for my opinion.	8/11/2021 1:43 PM
10	Please do not buy this.	8/8/2021 7:47 PM
11	Controversy can arise about anything at any time. We should not allow this to cause us to attempt to erase historical facts. Events have happened. People have come and gone. Taking down or removing structures from our sight does not make things go away. We need reminders for future generations to not repeat mistakes and to honor achievements.	8/8/2021 12:38 PM
12	na	8/8/2021 11:37 AM
13	The boys who attended the Boys Ranch School were Boys Scouts. That is enough information to go ahead and purchase this historically accurate painting.	8/7/2021 10:48 PM
14	A great piece depicting los Alamos and Los Alamos history	8/7/2021 9:23 PM
15	Too expensive	8/7/2021 8:36 PM
16	It's just too much- we should be using these funds to invest in making Los Alamos more livable and affordable to young families instead of seeing them go, and tax their tax dollars, to Santa Fe and espanola	8/7/2021 1:04 PM
17	It's showing a part of LA history and it's a great painting although kind of expensive.	8/6/2021 10:47 PM
18	Perhaps it is time to balance the Los Alamos public art collection with some more contemporary work.	8/6/2021 9:36 PM
19	It's a rather skillful piece of art, but does it align with the budget set aside for Art in Public Places or would it diminish another line item if it were purchased.	8/6/2021 9:31 PM
20	The County should say "No!" to representations that celebrate Boy Scouts, and the victimization of these young men.	8/4/2021 11:12 PM
21	The work is really nicely done. Unfortunately, the subject matter has had it's heyday and the turn of events has been unfavorable due to actions and responses or lack thereof. The price is prohibitive if any other reason is needed to reject this painting.	8/4/2021 10:25 PM
22	This painting captures the rugged nature of the plateau along with its vastness in all its majesty. It also shows the strength and spirit of adventure of the boys who explore and care for the land around them.	8/4/2021 7:40 PM
23	Personally, I don't like the painting much, it's not my style. But, outside of that, it's nicely	8/4/2021 1:21 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

done, it fits into the charge of Art in Public Places and Mr. Segler has been waiting for years to get this resolved and presented publicly. I think this needs to be in Fuller Lodge and be done with. I do think the cost is crazy, but again, without knowing how much is in the fund...

24	It would make a good conversation starter to have hanging in the main hall and would get more viewing access.	8/4/2021 12:41 PM
25	I like a large painting that can be enjoyed even if you're not specifically looking at it.	8/3/2021 8:50 AM
26	No	8/2/2021 8:26 PM
27	I know all three boys depicted in the painting, and where it is hung and it's meaning are so beneficial to all of Scout Troops in Los Alamos.	8/2/2021 4:16 PM
28	This represents an important part of Los Alamos history.	8/2/2021 3:43 PM
29	Please do not spend our Art funding on this ugly and uninspiring piece. It is outrageously priced and so very awkward. Please find a piece of art that enhances its location to purchase instead.	8/2/2021 3:16 PM
30	Looks like the cover of the Boy Scout Handbook. Blech.	8/2/2021 2:11 PM
31	Too much time is being spent contemplating and debating the painting. It's a beautiful representation of a major part of Los Alamos' history. Just hang it up.	8/2/2021 1:12 PM
32	Get it	8/2/2021 1:08 PM
33	Too expensive.	8/2/2021 12:22 PM
34	Price us too high	8/2/2021 5:07 AM
35	This is a beautiful painting that reflects a part of Los Alamos' history that is often overlooked. Troop 22 is still active in Los Alamos. It is the longest running troop west of the Mississippi. There have been no scandals with either of the Boy Scout troops in Los Alamos.	8/2/2021 12:53 AM
36	It is a great painting, but that much money could be used much better!	8/1/2021 11:03 PM
37	Too costly	8/1/2021 10:55 PM
38	Too pricey!	8/1/2021 10:51 PM
39	The painting is definitely too expensive and that would create a lot of controversy for this piece	8/1/2021 10:21 PM
40	If the county is going to choose between two different pieces of art to buy i think it would be more appropriate to buy a local artist work first.	8/1/2021 9:49 PM
41	I like it very much. It is so representative of the history of the town, as well as showcasing the geology, the Chamisa, the authentic colors. The realism of the boys, the horses, and their gear is stunning. Please note that your text states "Boys Scouts." It is "Boy Scouts" before you get a brass plaque made.	8/1/2021 8:55 PM
42	Boy Scouts of America is filing bankruptcy because they had to pay off so many boys' families because those boys were abused in BSA. I don't think that's a good fit for our County. Furthermore, that is way too much money for a piece of public art. That money could be spent supporting programs that help our community.	8/1/2021 6:59 PM
43	Too expensive and Boy Scouts are controversial.	8/1/2021 5:21 PM
44	TOO EXPENSIVE!!!!!! Public art below 10k please unless it is GIGANTIC and very very special. This is just too expensive.	8/1/2021 5:14 PM
45	None	8/1/2021 4:32 PM
46	I think this work really speaks to the history of Los Alamos	8/1/2021 4:14 PM
47	Just that although it is a good fit, it is too expensive	8/1/2021 3:34 PM
48	Do you pay full price for these things?!?	8/1/2021 3:34 PM
49	This is a bad use of funds .	8/1/2021 3:14 PM
50	This is entirely too expensive for the painting	8/1/2021 2:49 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

51	Too expensive, not a local artist, no diversity in an indigenous population region.	8/1/2021 2:20 PM
52	It's an absolutely gorgeous piece. Jeff is very talented and does wonderful work.	8/1/2021 1:54 PM
53	It echoes pictures I have seen of historical photos of young men in this area. It's pretty pricey. Once again I have no idea how art is priced. I assume it is an original and not a print.	8/1/2021 12:30 PM
54	Its beautiful but wow the cost is disproportionate to art of equal quality, representation, and local artistry.	8/1/2021 12:18 PM
55	That price is outrageous!	8/1/2021 11:53 AM
56	It would create controversy, but at that time there was no obvious controversy. My first thought was to find something much less expensive and to also get something about the women of Los Alamos.	8/1/2021 11:51 AM
57	The controversial reputation of the painter is problematic.	8/1/2021 11:43 AM
58	This painting should not be purchased. The Boy Scouts have a long history of abuse and discriminatory practices. While I appreciate their role in Los Alamos history, the organization does not deserve to be idealized in any way, especially not at this price point!	8/1/2021 11:16 AM
59	Too much money for the county to be wasting on art.	8/1/2021 10:42 AM
60	Too expensive. Don't buy it	8/1/2021 10:32 AM
61	Is the price similar to the painter's other works? If so, I approve.	8/1/2021 9:52 AM
62	It is over priced. I think no more than $10,000.	8/1/2021 9:44 AM
63	I think there are a lot of other things the money could be better spent on. I would prefer something that fosters and highlights a wider array of local artists than spending a large amount on one painting.	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
64	Nice painting	8/1/2021 9:43 AM
65	While I like the painting, and Los Alamos has an early history with scouting, there is so much controversy with BSA, I'd rather a different painting/subject be chosen. Also, I think it's too pricey.	8/1/2021 9:32 AM
66	Maybe place a placard next to it explaining the current controversy and why the painting is historically important	8/1/2021 9:31 AM
67	It is a beautiful piece, very well done and amazing attention to detail. However, 68,000 is a ridiculous price to pay for a painting and I feel that the county could put that money to much better use.	8/1/2021 9:31 AM
68	Way too expensive	8/1/2021 9:16 AM
69	Cost is way too high for the County to be spending on art!	8/1/2021 8:58 AM
70	Seems pretty expensive, but I don't price art.	8/1/2021 8:54 AM
71	Can you spend $70 k on something else please?! That's a years salary	8/1/2021 8:53 AM
72	Too expensive!	8/1/2021 8:29 AM
73	Do not spend that much money, it is not a prudent use of funds. Get the Sec Sandoval painting. I like this painting well enough but not for the price	8/1/2021 8:21 AM
74	Too costly	8/1/2021 8:11 AM
75	$68000 is a frivolous use of the county's money. Absolutely outrageous cost.	8/1/2021 8:04 AM
76	I love the artist's talents but the price is outrageous. No way to justify that price.	8/1/2021 8:02 AM
77	I like that it is painted by the national BSA artist.	8/1/2021 7:56 AM
78	This painting celebrates the toxic rugged individualism that continues to oppress indigenous people today. Please do not further the status of Los alamos as a town that is full of itself and ignorant of the colonial damage to the surrounding Pueblos and sovereign nations.	8/1/2021 7:54 AM
79	Too expensive. Way too expensive	8/1/2021 7:44 AM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

80	This was approved many years ago and again just recently. I'm unsure why there are continued surveys and questions about this. Buy the painting. Hang the painting.	8/1/2021 7:29 AM
81	Well you didn't ask about prices. This one is quite expensive.	8/1/2021 7:02 AM
82	I like that it reflects the history of the area. I'm not a fan of BSA but the history of the area is important to recognize.	8/1/2021 7:01 AM
83	Too much money.	8/1/2021 6:45 AM
84	Waste of money	8/1/2021 6:19 AM
85	Way too expensive of a purchase on artwork.	8/1/2021 6:03 AM
86	The price is too high for this piece. You could buy or commission a lot of similar art for this price.	8/1/2021 5:51 AM
87	It just seems like a very expensive piece to purchase for the county. That money could be spent on something else	8/1/2021 5:33 AM
88	Cost way to much	8/1/2021 3:55 AM
89	Too expensive	8/1/2021 2:59 AM
90	Wrong choice, for all the wrong reasons, at the wrong location. Considering the $ cost, such an amount could be redirected to an all inclusive cultural statement the community can enjoy - outdoors.	8/1/2021 1:11 AM
91	Pricey...	8/1/2021 12:58 AM
92	$68.5 k for a single painting is extremely expensive, and quite infuriating after the year people had. In the meantime, we can't even watch a movie in town anymore... How about using "art funds" to help attract new tenants for the movie theater, or run it directly, even at reduced capacity? A painting doesn't do much for a town, a movie theater is essential for the access to cultural pieces.	8/1/2021 12:12 AM
93	None of Segler's other paintings are this expensive. That should have been a sign to the Art in Public Places board that Segler is attempting to gouge Los Alamos County.	7/31/2021 11:35 PM
94	Not worth the money	7/31/2021 11:32 PM
95	This discussion has been going on far too long. The decision needs to be made so the APPB can move on.	7/31/2021 11:20 PM
96	No	7/31/2021 11:05 PM
97	Too pricey. Compare it to price of his other paintings.	7/31/2021 10:41 PM
98	It's not a great painting, and not because of the Boy Scouts affiliation. But I was an art history major so I am an admitted snob about art. The composition is stilted, the horse on the left is bordering on looking like a cartoon, and the lack of depth and foreshortening of the background gives an amateurish feel to the whole thing.	7/31/2021 10:37 PM
99	Too pricey. Could be stolen	7/31/2021 10:35 PM
100	It's too much to pay for one painting	7/31/2021 10:35 PM
101	The cost is more than the average teacher's salary in Los Alamos. The price and the connection with BSA is disgusting. Why not fund some youth art programs to study local history and produce public art?	7/31/2021 10:33 PM
102	Beautiful piece, nice size. Cost seems high, buy buying it from the BSA seems somewhat problematic	7/31/2021 10:32 PM
103	This piece is ridiculously expensive. Put the money elsewhere. Let some rich dude buy it for their private collection, public institutions should not be spending this kind of money on art.	7/31/2021 10:31 PM
104	There was not a question about cost related to this painting, $68,500 for a painting is way to expensive.	7/31/2021 10:25 PM
105	Price is too much.	7/31/2021 10:22 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

106	It's too expensive despite the relevance to local history. The money would be better spent support children's programs or other community programs that more directly benefit county residents.	7/31/2021 10:14 PM
107	It is pretty but the county should not be spending that much money on a painting, there are much better uses for the funds or could put more art in other places by multiple artists for the same costs	7/31/2021 10:08 PM
108	The price is outrageous for the type of work. Not worth one painting. Supporting more artist with that money would be more logical	7/31/2021 10:06 PM
109	This price seems excessive. I am sorry but Sec Sandoval has been a local and state (if not world) renowned artist. We need to spend 70K on things that are focused on more community involvement. NOT one piece of art that only some will enjoy.	7/31/2021 10:03 PM
110	way too much money for what it is	7/31/2021 9:58 PM
111	Don't buy it. We're being gouged with that price. Council are stewards of the county dollars. Spending on this would be a miscarriage of their duty to those who elected them.	7/31/2021 9:57 PM
112	I like the piece very much, but the price is very steep.	7/31/2021 9:54 PM
113	Too expensive at this time.	7/31/2021 9:53 PM
114	Seriously overpriced.	7/31/2021 9:52 PM
115	It is a beautiful painting, and the subject of the painting is perfect for Los Alamos. However, that is a ridiculously high price. I think another piece should be chosen so that those tens of thousands of dollars can go toward promoting small business and adventure tourism in the county.	7/31/2021 9:52 PM
116	See above	7/31/2021 9:51 PM
117	This art does not appeal to me in the least. And it's way too expensive.	7/31/2021 9:49 PM
118	This painting is WAY too expensive	7/31/2021 9:48 PM
119	Paying that much for a simple painting of Boy Scouts in a canyon is a waste of tax payer money and gives all efforts for "public art" a bad name.	7/31/2021 9:46 PM
120	I like the painting but I think the county is not being responsible to consider a painting of this price. In addition they obviously (by previous questions) think the artist and relation to Boy Scouts may be an issue for some. I would propose to search for other paintings with same theme.	7/31/2021 9:45 PM
121	$68k is outrageous!! Shouldn't the county spend our tax dollars more wisely?	7/31/2021 9:43 PM
122	No	7/31/2021 9:41 PM
123	The price seems too high for public funds, given the possibility of controversy, and the choice to place the painting in a place that the public cannot usually have access to see.	7/31/2021 9:37 PM
124	NA	7/31/2021 9:36 PM
125	Incredible piece likely to gain in value as well.	7/31/2021 7:15 PM
126	This has great detail and a great fit for the community.	7/31/2021 6:54 PM
127	I am not sure how this will all unfold, but our tax money should NOT be spent on an overpriced, mediocre, inappropriate painting that has absolutely nothing to do with the history of Los Alamos County.	7/31/2021 6:02 PM
128	Just give it up. Stay away anything that deals with Scouts.	7/31/2021 4:47 PM
129	I really love this painting, it reminds me of the ranch school boys and that period of Los Alamos' history. It belongs in Fuller Lodge.	7/31/2021 4:04 PM
130	excellent artwork by a famous artist who lives and works in Los Alamos. This is part of our history, not about current politics about BSA. Get the painting and hang it in Fuller Lodge.	7/31/2021 3:08 PM
131	It is extremely expensive and I do not support the county paying for such an extravagant art piece.	7/31/2021 12:48 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

132	The Boy Scouts were an honorable society in those days, what has gone on lately shouldn't have anything to do with it!	7/31/2021 12:22 PM
133	Additional significance is that it was painted by the current National Artist for the Boy Scouts of America, only the third ever. Norman Rockwell held the position for the 1st 60 years of the BSA, Joseph Csatari for the next 40 years and now Jeff Segler.	7/31/2021 9:30 AM
134	That's a lot of tax money to pay for a painting. Why not commission a local artist to do one for $5k	7/31/2021 6:30 AM
135	Price is very high	7/30/2021 10:42 PM
136	too expensive ..use local artists	7/30/2021 8:32 PM
137	None	7/30/2021 6:57 PM
138	That's a lot of money!	7/30/2021 6:26 PM
139	If they were remembrances of actual people who lived here.	7/30/2021 6:21 PM
140	No	7/30/2021 5:45 PM
141	Skilled work. Wish the center of interest boy had a shirt on. Deflects interest from rest of painting.	7/30/2021 5:08 PM
142	No	7/30/2021 4:25 PM
143	Price = no	7/30/2021 2:15 PM
144	Beautiful painting-love the boys . So realistic- love their expressions! The colors he used are wonderful!!	7/30/2021 11:44 AM
145	The Council made a huge mistake. Rescind your decision, or simply reject this from consideration.	7/30/2021 11:02 AM
146	No	7/30/2021 7:53 AM
147	Stop romanticizing child abuse and abusive institutions. It's way way too expensive and outdated. We need to move on to more intelligent art pieces.	7/30/2021 1:12 AM
148	Jeff should know better. Shame on anyone who thinks otherwise.	7/30/2021 12:12 AM
149	I wish the county would actually spend money on the boys in our county.	7/30/2021 12:07 AM
150	An original Jeff Segler of our special place. What a great piece.	7/29/2021 11:43 PM
151	This is a beautiful painting that deserves the attention it was ment for.	7/29/2021 10:59 PM
152	It is a beautiful painting.	7/29/2021 10:38 PM
153	Absolutely should not be part of our collection, also why do you mention the cost of the other piece but not this one which is at least 500% higher?	7/29/2021 8:29 PM
154	Seems extremely expensive, but it is very nice and appropriate for Los Alamos	7/29/2021 1:36 PM
155	It's unfortunate that this work, representing an historical aspect of Los Alamos, is so expensive and not actually created by a local artist. Any potential controversy with BSA aside, that money would better serve supporting local artists.	7/29/2021 9:35 AM
156	The purchase price seems grossly disproportionate to the archive pricing listed for other Jeff Segler works. I am opposed to purchase of this work AT THIS PRICE. Leaving aside price, the photos give the impression of a good work and great subject matter.	7/28/2021 11:39 PM
157	It reminds me of Texas rednecks, not something our town should be affiliating with.	7/28/2021 10:16 PM
158	This another boring painting and it is way over priced. Really, I think you can find something better.	7/28/2021 9:50 PM
159	Too much money!	7/28/2021 9:46 PM
160	See my comments above.	7/28/2021 9:29 PM
161	Beautiful Painting. Much more appropriate than the painting of Maroon Bells, CO that is	7/28/2021 8:10 PM

APP Potential Public Art Acquisition Survey

	hanging in the Lodge.
162	What about something that doesn't feature more white men?	7/28/2021 8:06 PM
163	No.	7/28/2021 7:07 PM
164	Did not ask about cost in-this survey. Very expensive and artist painted it and now is expecting County to buy.	7/28/2021 3:42 PM
165	I personally think the painting is tacky. I wouldnt buy for my house and certainly wouldn't purchase to display in Los Alamos.	7/28/2021 3:42 PM
166	Do not buy that painting. Do not take it, even if it is donated.	7/28/2021 1:55 PM
167	This piece SHOULD NOT BE in the public art collection.	7/28/2021 1:38 PM
168	Boy scouts are an important part of the history of Los Alamos.	7/28/2021 11:32 AM
169	It is SO expensive!!!! Why so much? The Sec Sandoval painting is smaller, yes, but not that much smaller, and is WAY less expensive? What market is the artist basing his price off of? I am an artist, and I am all for valuing art and paying what it's worth. I am in full support of paying market price. But this isn't Santa Fe. That is a crazy price! Personally, I think Sec Sandoval's painting is too inexpensive (under market value), and this is WAY over. Now, if it was painted in the 1920s, then I would agree, but this is a new painting, and needs to be priced appropriately.	7/28/2021 11:10 AM
170	Boys of Troop 22.	7/28/2021 11:05 AM
171	I wish the one scout had a shirt painted on ...	7/28/2021 9:31 AM
172	The cost of this painting is staggering. I think the county has better use for those funds than to sink it into a painting. In many parts of the country, you can buy a house for that amount of money.	7/28/2021 9:17 AM