Works of Art by Mel Prueitt

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	One of the libraries	10/28/2020 3:38 PM
2	I think they are great but I don't understand the ins and outs of a collection. If there is no room to store these items, should be ok to gift them back to the family then.	10/28/2020 2:42 PM
3	In the library	10/21/2020 10:29 PM
4	White Rock Library They may be early computer graphics work, but they are still very intriguing. I keep coming back to this post to admire them.	10/21/2020 9:31 PM
5	WR Library or LA Library	10/21/2020 8:28 PM
6	Leave them or use them in a different hallway somewhere.	10/20/2020 5:34 AM
7	How about the public library? These are colorful and whimsical. The real question is simply: what do you want to replace them with, and why?	10/18/2020 4:06 PM
8	Where are they now? Would they be replaced with something else? A new acquisition, something else currently on display, or something else owned but not on display? If they are kept, will they remain on display? This survey is missing a lot of information that would make it possible to give a better answer.	10/17/2020 10:08 PM
9	White rock library entrance—goes with the playful theme outside	10/15/2020 9:26 AM
10	If the family doesn't need them back, maybe they could be donated to the Mesa Library for check out?	10/15/2020 9:17 AM
11	Leave them where they are, so you don't have to waste more money on new art in public places. Have you even thought to ask Mel's widow, Susi how she feels about this? Of course not.	10/13/2020 4:30 PM
12	If they belong to the county, we could place them in the library - perhaps to be loaned out. But our tax dollars paid for them. You shouldn't just get rid of them because you no longer like it!	10/13/2020 3:51 PM
13	Sell them. Give first right to buy to the family.	10/13/2020 2:15 PM
14	White Rock library and visitors center	10/13/2020 1:25 PM
15	Any other County facility. These pieces were paid for by tax payer monies.	10/13/2020 12:40 PM
16	Mesa Public Library Children's Department by thr computers. Just because it's an "outdated" representation of computer modeling doesn't mean it's not still valid.	10/13/2020 9:52 AM
