5. APPROVAL OF MINUTESItem 10481-18 - Approval of the February 1, 2018 Transportation Board Minutes

A motion was made by Vice-chair Machen, seconded by Member Schiferl, that the February 1, 2018 meeting minutes be approved as presented; motion passed unanimously.

6. OLD BUSINESS -Possible Action7. NEW BUSINESS - Possible Action*Item 10482-18 - Recognition of Outgoing Transportation Board Member Jim Nesmith

Philo Shelton, Public Works Director presented a plaque to Member Jim Nesmith, and thanked him for his service and dedication to the community.

Item 10483-18 - Crosswalk at Broadview

It is proposed that a crosswalk be installed on the north side of the intersection (with associated signage), the existing curb ramp be brought into compliance and another curb ramp be installed on the west side of Broadview Drive. Adjacent to the curb ramp on the west side of Broadview Drive, a bus loading pad would also be installed (see exhibit). The proposed work would encourage students to cross at the crosswalk (with the encouragement and coaching of police staff, schools staff and parents) and improve the ADA accessibility in the area. Once the work is completed, the bus stop would be moved to the south to the newly constructed student loading area, improving site visibility of the bus stop in general.

Item 10488-18 - North Mesa Improvements Project - Phase 2Project location:

- Camino Manzana
- Camino Mora
- Camino Cereza

Project Purpose:

- Improve Pavement Index
- Address ADA deficiencies

- Engineer's estimate is $900,000

Proposed Construction Schedule and Milestones:

- Camino Manzana - begin in late June
- Camino Mora - begin in late July
- Camino Cereza - begin in mid-August
- Mid-September - final completion

Project Concerns & Constraints:

- Traffic Control - Maintenance of Access
- On-street parking- residents may have to park on adjacent streets during work hours
- Typical work hours- Monday - Friday 7:00 am - 5:30 pm (Contractor may work until 9:00 pm)
- Dust control - Maintained daily with water truck.

Public Information & Involvement:
