
General Information

All County Board and Commission members must be residents of Los Alamos County. Lodgers' Tax Advisory Board members, except the at-large community member, do not need to be residents if they are employed/represent an attraction or hotel.

Once a resident fills out and submits this application, an interview is scheduled with the B&C's County Council liaison, the relevant staff liaison, and the B&C Chair. After the interviews, the applicants' names are presented to the full Council during a regularly scheduled Council meeting, where a vote is taken regarding the appointment of each applicant. Each applicant will be notified if they are appointed or not.

Only on-line applications will be considered.

If you are interested in applying for Labor Relations Board, please contact Denise Cassel at 505-662-8047.

#	Question/Documented Response
1	Please tell us a little about yourself and then describe your experience, education, and training that qualify you for this Board or Commission. Retired from Lab (mechanical engineer). Served on Council, Parks & Rec. Interested because County needs to invest more in tourism.
2	What do you believe are the greatest issues facing the County? What do you believe are the greatest issues facing the Board/commission you applied for? [Note to interview panel: If the answer to this question appears to be off base with Council's position, please explore a little more.] For county, housing and sufficient land for commercial development. For LTAB, do we have ordinance regarding short term rentals.
3	How do you perceive the role of County Boards and Commissions in local government? BCCs are advisory to the county council. LTAB has some authority regarding LT revenues and how they're spent.
4	What specific skills do you feel are important for effective Board or Commission members? Which ones do you possess? Board members need to be engaged with the community and he has that expertise. It's important because BCCs are vital to our democratic process, to address – getting input to Council.
5	What could you do, specifically, to foster a collaborative relationship between staff and the Board or Commission on which you would like to serve? County staff run the county; the Council sets the policy. The BCC must work closely with staff to ensure board is not recommending actions that can't be implemented.
6	Have you served on any Boards, Commissions or Committees (not only County B&Cs – but also church groups, non-profit boards, school committees, etc.) within the last five years? What do you think was your greatest contribution during your tenure? Most effort with LAHS. Was president during several years during time when there were serious issues with staff that were successfully resolved. Also serve on J. Robert Oppenheimer Memorial Committee which hosts an annual lecture as well as scholarships for local and regional students. Important to act regionally.

7	Are you familiar with the County Charter and County Code as they apply to the Board you are applying for? For the most part, yes. Used to carry around a copy of the charter in his briefcase as a reminder. Per LTAB, not clear how much authority LTAB has with regard to LTRs and recommendations to Council.
8	Are you willing to take the time to attend training sessions to become more knowledgeable about your duties and responsibilities in an advisory capacity? Yes. Will attend all meetings, including the annual presentation to Council.
9	Are you aware that, as a member of a Los Alamos County Board or Commission, your written communications, including e-mails, are public records (even if produced on your personal computer), and as such are subject to the New Mexico Inspection of Public Records Act. 12	Do you have any questions for the interview panel? Prefer face-to-face meetings. LTAB agenda seems very ambitious.

Notes: Councilor Ryti shared that at Feb 7 meeting, Council approved 22 Council Strategic Goals. Economics is one with 5-6 items, including Tourism. All will be presented on a dashboard to see progress made on each goal. Allows for goals that are longer lead, continuous improvement. Exciting time for board members to participate.
