The plan also includes some historical information for context. It is intended to be a guide for the Electric Distribution Asset Management Team. The document is not intended to be a published report and is provided here to facilitate a high level discussion with our governing bodies.

Staff will walk the Board through the updated 2021 Electric Reliability Plan with the goal of seeking feedback and consensus on the report. Staff will also address the most recent outages along with lessons learned and changes needed within the operation.
