1.0 Previous Calendar Year Work Plan Highlights

1.1 List the top five activities for the previous calendar year.

- | | |
|-------|---|
| 1.1.1 | Supported the Community Services Integrated Master Plan, aligning with Council goals and priorities to enhance new and existing parks, recreation facilities, programs, and open spaces in Los Alamos County (LAC). |
| 1.1.2 | Conducted an annual review of PRB subcommittee charters, transitioning their focus to work groups. Directed PRB work groups toward chair assignments that support the PRB and the Community Services Department's CIP and other initiatives. Created a Bike Park Working Group. |
| 1.1.3 | Supported public meetings to gather community feedback and foster support for projects including the BMX park, playgrounds, skate park, trails, and the Open Space Management Plan. |
| 1.1.4 | Supported and promoted the diverse recreational interests of the community and reviewed presentations on Baling Twine Recycling, Gopher Control, Median Redesign, Ice Rink Temporary Chiller, Bee City USA, 37th Street and Pinon Playgrounds, and Brewer Arena Grandstand. |
| 1.1.5 | Continued to seek input and communication from community user groups on projects that align with the Integrated Master Plan and Council Strategic Objectives. |

1.2 List the top five accomplishments for the previous calendar year.

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 1.2.1 | Toured parks and recreation facilities. Recruitment for Parks & Recreation Board. |
| 1.2.2 | OSWG created and submitted a public survey to the Sites SW group, augmenting the public input on the new Open Space Management Master Plan |
| 1.2.3 | ELWG compiled and submitted recommended changes/corrections to the PRB concerning the Los Alamos County Stables website. |
| 1.2.4 | Transition subcommittees to working groups and establish Trails and Open Space, as well as Equine and Livestock, as designated working groups. |

1.2.5

1.3 List the lessons learned for the previous calendar year.

1.3.1

Communicate all pertinent information about upcoming Parks & Recreation projects promptly to impacted user groups, fostering effective communication to ensure everyone feels heard. Providing clear and concise wording on motions to be considered by Council.

1.3.2

Managing timing of projects that need public input, so that the public has specific plans in front of them with concrete options for review.

1.3.3

The transition from subcommittees to working groups highlighted the need for understanding county regulations and codes, which proved challenging. Enhanced training and mentorship for new members were identified as crucial for navigating bureaucracy and fostering innovative, efficient solutions like working groups to improve community involvement.

1.3.4

Balancing the unique needs of different user groups is essential, even if not all requests can be fully met. Ensuring that all voices are heard fosters trust and inclusivity in decision-making. Community engagement through volunteer programs promotes tangible improvements while cultivating pride and ownership among residents.

1.3.5

Long-term planning is vital for sustaining community infrastructure while balancing short-term expectations. Flexibility is equally important in addressing emerging trends and changing needs. Proactively adapting to activities like the growing demand for pickleball demonstrates the value of anticipating and meeting evolving recreational interests.
