RE: Discover Los Alamos LTAB's Tourism Visitation Report for the month of June 2025.

Dear Ellyn,

Here is my tourism report for the month of June 2025. Without the summer shuttles running from the White Rock Visitor Center to Bandelier National Monument, the White Rock Visitor Center has seen a 41% decrease in visitation from this time last year. Los Alamos Visitor Center also has seen a 20% decrease in visitation from January-June 2024-2025.

Sincerely,

Melanie Peña

June Narrative Comments:

- The new Los Alamos Adventure Guide's has been delivered to DLA's storage unit. There are approximately 700 copies of the guides available in storage.
- Event material in kiosks and the displays are updated weekly or as needed by a DLA representative. These contain a weekly Concierge Calendar and are restocked with 8-10 different Los Alamos County tourism pamphlets. There are currently 29 in place in the Los Alamos, LANL and White Rock areas.
- All state-managed visitor centers were contacted during the month to ensure they have Los Alamos Adventure Guides in stock. Similarly, local distribution points are also monitored. These are distributed by our contractor Santa Fe Brochure Distribution.
- DLA's website www.visitlosalamos.org and events page are updated on a weekly basis with new events and information.
- DLA recruits, trains, and manages volunteers for a variety of work. There were 62 volunteer hours logged for the month of June.

- WRVC Business Display Cases featured the Los Alamos Nature Center (PEEC), Gadgets (Bradbury Science Museum), Los Alamos History Museum Gift Shop, Bathtub Row Brewing Coop, Los Alamos Coop Market, Boomerang, Little Studio on the Mesa, Brenda Fleming (local artist), Metzger's, Pajarito Mountain and Samizdat Bookstore were on display for the month of June. The large display featured the Bradbury Science Museum.
- In June, DLA helped the following groups/events requesting assistance in promoting and planning their upcoming planned and/or potential events in 2025. We provide tourism materials and maps as needed for each group.
  - 100 Welcome Bags – LANL New Employees
